Disclaimers and Other Important Information Regarding Your Required Minimum Distribution Summary

You appear to have satisfied your annual required minimum distribution (RMD) from your retirement account. Please verify this calculation with your tax professional, as there may be other information that could impact your required minimum distribution.

According to our records, you are required under federal tax law to take an annual minimum distribution from your retirement account. Required minimum distributions (RMDs) usually begin in the year you reach the age of 72 and is calculated by dividing your year-end fair market value by a factor determined by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). For the year you turn 72, the first RMD payment can be delayed until April 1st of the year following the year in which you turn 72. For all subsequent years, including the year in which the first RMD was paid by April 1st, you must take the RMD by December 31st of the year. Please verify this calculation with your tax professional, as there may be other information that could impact your RMD. If you do not take enough to satisfy the requirement, the IRS may impose a 50% excise tax on the shortfall. To start your distributions, contact your Financial Advisor.

Required Minimum Distribution Summary

If you are age 72 or older by the end of the calendar year and have a retirement account for which Pershing serves as the custodian or servicing agent, this section will appear. It displays the prior year-end fair market value, the calculation factor, the Internal Revenue Service required minimum distribution amount for the current year, the amount withdrawn year-to-date for the current year and the remaining amount to be withdrawn for the current year.
